

The Core Competencies are:

★ skills (stuff you can do)

★ knowledge (stuff you know)

★ and strategies (actions and plans you use)

▶ to work and play by yourself and with others, manage your emotions, and make good decisions.

Core Competencies

The Core Competencies are important for all kids to know and use, in every grade at school; to help you learn a lot and for learning to be fun and engaging, so you'll keep learning!

Communication Competency

helps us to:

- ▶ get information and ideas from various places
(teachers, friends, books, online)

- ▶ give information to different people in different ways (sharing, reflecting, presenting)

- ▶ and work collaboratively
(working together, working cooperatively, in groups)

Communication

Thinking Competency

helps us to:

▶ work on how we think and how we learn

▶ work on how we come up with ideas and what we do with our ideas (on our own, or in a group)

Thinking about thinking (metacognition), thinking skills, and habits you form when you encounter a problem are all part of the Thinking Competency.

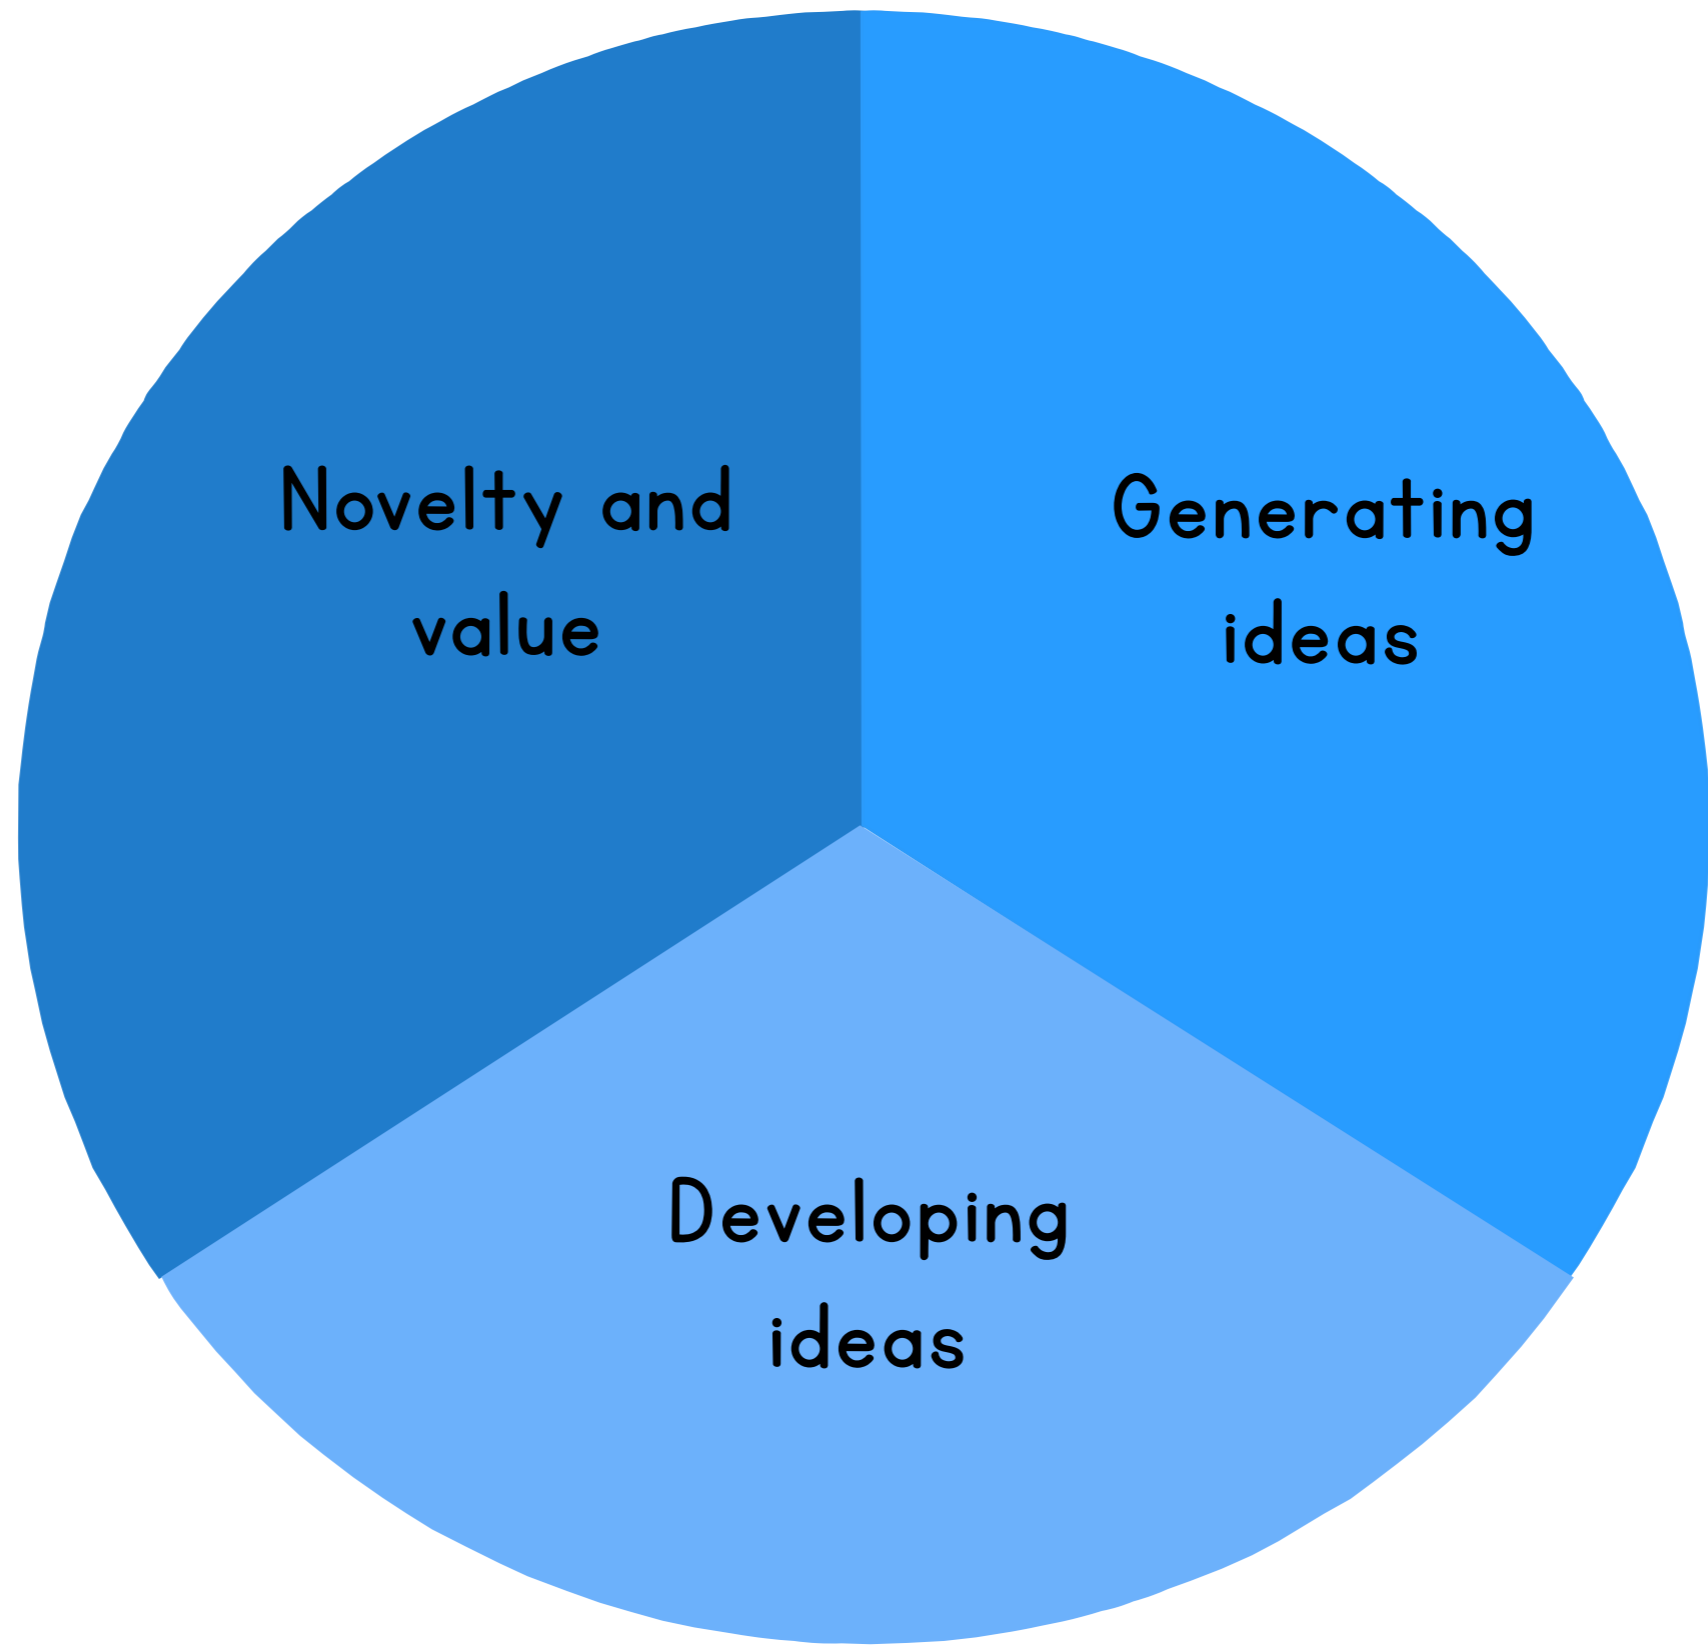

Critical Thinking

Creative Thinking

Personal and Social Competency

is about:

how you think about yourself

- ▶ how you think, reflect, plan about how you learn
- ▶ how you behave
- ▶ how you control your emotions
- ▶ how you take care of yourself
- ▶ where you come from (your heritage or culture)
- ▶ how you contribute to your school and your community

how you think about and connect to other people

- ▶ how you think, reflect, and plan about how you work in a group
- ▶ how you collaborate with others

- ▶ how you work through problems and work to create solutions with others
